6. Use IT programmes to provide a variety of administrative services, including the e-Procurement application for the ordering of stationery and uniform from internal and external suppliers.
7. Book travel and accommodation for the Protection department, using a business travel management company. Book tickets at Protection related events, conferences and seminars.
8. Process the clock cards for the department using the staff attendance recording system.
9. Support the Protection Admin Supervisor in the upkeep of the admin training manuals.

10. Identify issues and advise System Support of complex alterations to the Gazetteer.
11. Support and provide cover for the Protection District Admin staff with workload, when necessary.
12. Support system testing, as directed by the Protection Admin supervisor and provide feedback on any process issues encountered.
13. Arrange internal meetings, book venues and invite attendees using Outlook. Support the facilitation of events hosted by the Protection department.
14. Attend meetings as a minute taker.
15. To undertake any other duties deemed suitable by the Authority commensurate to the grade.

VALUES, BEHAVIOURS AND CODE OF ETHICS

As detailed in the Authority's CRMP, the Leadership Message clearly states our Values.

We serve with Courage

- By never settling for the status quo
- By being decisive and calm under pressure
- By having determination to see things through
- By being prepared to fail
- By celebrating diversity and being open to new opportunities and challenges
- By setting high standards and not being embarrassed for doing so
- By challenging ourselves to be better

We serve with Integrity

- By doing the right thing even when it is hard or no one is looking
- By leading by example
- By standing up for what matters
- By being open, honest and fair
- By making decisions based on facts
- By explaining the why
- By being consistent
- By always doing what we say we are going to do

We serve with Compassion

- By acting with empathy and kindness
- By actively listening - hearing what is being said
- By going the extra mile to help
- By looking after and supporting each other, noticing what is going on for people
- By recognising each other's contribution
- By creating a sense of belonging
- By embracing and understanding difference

The National Core Code of Ethics for Fire & Rescue Services sets out five Key Principles, which provide a basis for promoting good behaviour and challenging inappropriate behaviour. The code is complemented by MFRA's Ground Rules, which outlines how we welcome difference and individuality, create a sense of belonging in the most inclusive way and provide some key, simple rules surrounding how we act.

-  Putting our communities first
We put the interests of the public, the community, and service users first.
-  Integrity
We act with integrity including being open, honest, and consistent in everything that we do.
-  Dignity and respect
We treat people with dignity and respect, making decisions objectively based on evidence, without discrimination or bias.
-  Leadership
We are all positive role models, always demonstrating flexible and resilient leadership.
We are all accountable for everything we do and challenge all behaviour that falls short of the highest standards.
-  Equality, diversity, and inclusion (EDI)
We continually recognise and promote the value of EDI, both within the FRS and the wider communities in which we serve.
We stand against all forms of discrimination, create equal opportunities, promote equality, foster good relations, and celebrate difference.

LEADERSHIP BEHAVIOURS
